1 WILLIAM FRAGOSA: Once again my name is Fragosa, F-r-a-g-o-s-a, William, concerned citizen. [I guess I want to say that I have an opposition to the whole project because we've spent $8 billion and counting up to now. We could have used that money in much better ways to fuel our energy consumption.] You know, it doesn't look like we're slowing down any in our industrial society.

I guess we have a lot of man-made laws that we're going by right now. And I can't help but think that at some point we're going to have natural laws take over. Kind of shows that we're actually just pitiful human beings, can't really control the environment as we think we can.

2 So I just wanted to once again say my opposition to this project, stop spending our money is this way and [please have these meetings in a public place.]
